NEW FORCES ARE LANDED AT SALONIKI

Saloniki, Jan. 26.—(Staff Correspondence of the Associated Press)—New troops, especially large Italian contingents, are arriving every few days in Saloniki to reinforce the entente allied armies. The talk here is general of pushing through this spring the offensive planned for last spring, which the German attack on Verdun prevented.

No well informed allied officer in the Macedonian theatre of war expects any serious attack upon Saloniki by the Germans. Danger of attack from the south by Greeks never was taken seriously by the military experts. As the Greek army now is in the Peloponnese, where the entente fleet guards the isthmus of Corinth, the only means by which the Greek forces could march northward—an attack by King Constantine's soldiers is removed from the list of possibilities. In view of these circumstances, the continued arrival of important reinforcements in Macedonia is taken throughout Greece to indicate preparation for an early offensive designed to cut the German line of communications from Berlin to Constantinople.

In Macedonia today there are roughly about 80,000 French, 100,000 British, 10,000 Russians, some 30,000 Serbians, and perhaps 80,000 Italians, counting the latest arrivals, a total of about 350,000 fighting men. To this number may be added three regiments of Greeks, constituting the Venizelist army. Many of the later, however, are recruited from refugees from Thrace and Asia Minor and have not yet completed their training in arms.

General Sarraff has frequently stated that he considers half a million men would be required before active operations can begin in Macedonia. There are therefore, 150,000 bayonets still to come before an offensive can be undertaken.
